Six Nations of the Grand River
Development Corporation and Brock
Canada Inc. Launch Joint Venture

New partnership to deliver specialty services on projects in Southern Ontario, supporting economic growth and local development

Ohswegen, ON, May 16, 2025 – Six Nations of the Grand River Development Corporation (SNGRDC), the economic development arm of the Six Nations community, is pleased to announce a new joint venture with Brock Canada Inc. (Brock), a leading provider of multi-craft specialty services across North America. The joint venture, which is 50.1% equity owned by SNGRDC and 49.9% equity owned by Brock, will undertake contracts for development projects in Southern Ontario.

“We are excited to partner with Brock Canada, whose industry expertise and experience bring significant value to this joint venture,” said Matt Jamieson, President & CEO of SNGRDC. “This partnership will further diversify our portfolio while creating new economic and employment opportunities for the Six Nations community. I look forward to building a strong and productive relationship grounded in respect, sustainability, and safety.”

The joint venture will deliver a range of specialized services, including scaffolding, insulation, coatings, and rope access on development projects across Southern Ontario. Additionally, SNGRDC and Brock are committed to creating meaningful impact through mentorship, hands-on training, and employment opportunities for members of the Six Nations of the Grand River.

“This joint venture reflects our continued commitment to building strong partnerships that drive both business success and community growth,” said Joe Brickner, President of Brock Canada. “We’re proud to collaborate with SNGRDC to bring our expertise to projects in Southern Ontario while creating meaningful opportunities for the Six Nations community through employment, training, and mentorship.”
